FCI students visit Patnitop, hold cleanliness drive

Excelsior Correspondent

UDHAMPUR, Nov 11: The students of Food Craft Institute (FCI) Jammu today visited Patnitop, a famous tourist destination of Jammu region, to conduct activities under the Swachhta Action Plan.

Held in collaboration with Patnitop Development Authority, the event was aimed at spreading the message of 'Swachhta' among tourists, pilgrims and locals in and around Patnitop, and inculcates a habit of maintaining cleanliness and hygiene in them.

In addition to cleanliness drive, students made use of placards, banners, hoardings, standees, and live performances. The rallies, nukkad nataks, skits, cultural activities attracted the attention and participation of tourists visiting the hill station.

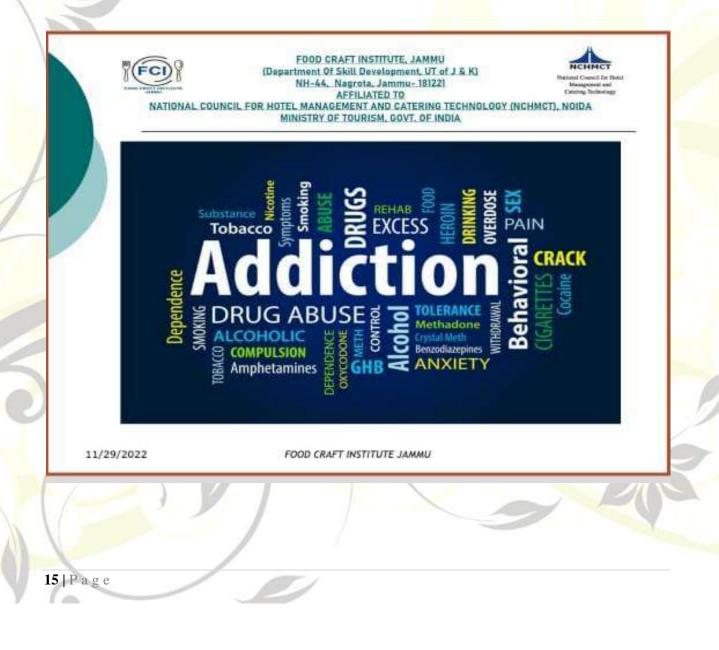

"Patnitop is one of the most visited tourist destination of and Kashmir. For Jammu maintaining the cleanliness of this picturesque hill station, and strive towards responsible tourism, we have launched Clean Mountains Save Mountains and Carry The Trash Back initiatives. Everyone is urged to be a part of it," said chief guest on the occasion, Thakur Sher Singh, CEO PDA.

The initiative was held under the aegis of the Swacchta Action Plan approved by the Union Ministry of Tourism.
